Daniel was a very dear friend when I was living in Dallas; we had so many adventures and misadventures. I'm so sorry to hear about this - he was far too young. All of you are in my prayers.

“ To Danny's family: My most heartfelt sorrow for the loss of your son, brother, uncle & friend to my children when they were teenagers. I pray all of you seek the Lord's comfort & trust for He is most gracious with his mercy to all who believe. Altho' so many years ago, I recall when Danny came to our home, he had such a gentle & genuine smile. He was shy but a friendly teenage high schooler. My children are saddened as they are all near Danny's age & still remember him. Old memories are what we hold onto to keep remembering our loved ones. God will walk with you on this journey for he knows your heart. "Bless those who mourn for they shall be comforted." Matt 5:4
